13 CONTRERAS,

14 Plaintiff,

15 vs.

16 STEVEN F. GRUEL, and DOES 1-20,

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES
AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

18 Plaintiff MARCO ANTONIO CORONA CONTRERAS, by and through his 19 attorney, submits his Complaint For Damages And Injunctive Relief against defendant STEVEN 20 F. GRUEL and DOES 1-20 as follows.

21 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22 1. Plaintiff MARCO ANTONIO CORONA CONTRERAS (hereinafter 23 "Plaintiff") is an individual currently residing in San Lorenzo, CA.

24 2. Defendant STEVEN F. GRUEL ("GRUEL") is an individual currently 25 residing in the State of California, an attorney practicing law in the State of California, and 26 maintains his principal place of business in the City and County of San Francisco.

27 3. This court is the proper court because the defendants entered into the 28 contracts here, the contracts out of which this action arises were performed here, and defendants' tortious acts were committed here.

4. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on such information and belief, alleges that at all times herein mentioned, each of the defendants were acting as the partner(s), agent(s),

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES
AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

1 servant(s) and/or employee(s) of each of the other defendants and in doing the things hereinafter 2 alleged were acting within the course and scope of their agency and employment and with the 3 knowledge, notification and consent of each of the other defendants.

4 5. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or 5 otherwise, of defendants DOES 1-20, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff who therefore sues said 6 defendants by such fictitious names and Plaintiff will ask leave to amend this Complaint to set 7 forth their true names and capacities when the same are ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and 8 believes and on that basis allege that each of the defendants named herein as DOE was in some 9 manner responsible for the injuries and losses suffered by Plaintiff.

10 11 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

12 (Breach of Oral Contract #1 as to defendant GRUEL)

13 6. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 5 14 above, as though set forth fully herein.

15 7. At all times relevant, GRUEL is and has been an attorney with his principal 16 place of business located within the City and County of San Francisco.

17 8. On or around May 12, 2010, Plaintiff entered into an oral agreement with 18 GRUEL whereby GRUEL, in consideration for a flat fee payment of the sum of $10,000 by 19 Plaintiff, agreed to provide legal representation to Plaintiff by filing an appeal to the Board of 20 Immigration Appeals ("BIA") from a decision entered on May 5, 2010 by Immigration Judge 21 Kenneth Josephson in the matter of In re: Marco A. Corona Contreras, United States 22 Department of Justice, Executive Office for Immigration Review, Office of the Immigration 23 Judge, Seattle, Washington, File No. A089-854-130, Case No. SEA0906000296 ("File No.
 24 A089-854-130"), as well as a Motion To Stay Appeal and Remand To Immigration Judge to the 25 BIA, with the basis of the appeal being the ineffective assistance of counsel which Plaintiff's 26 previous attorney, Antonio Salazar, had provided to Plaintiff in File No. A089-854-130, thus 27 effectively denying Plaintiff a fair hearing on his application for cancellation of removal 28 (hereinafter referred to as "Contract #1.")

1 9. At the time Plaintiff hired GRUEL and throughout GRUEL's
2 representation of Plaintiff under Contract #1, there was never a written fee contract in existence
3 between Plaintiff and GRUEL in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 6148, and GRUEL never 4 provided invoices nor receipts of any kind to Plaintiff.

5 10. From on or around August 4, 2010, and continuing in an ongoing manner
6 thereafter to the present, GRUEL breached Contract #1 by failing to provide effective
7 representation to Plaintiff, including, but not limited to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a)
8 failing to keep Plaintiff reasonably well informed regarding the subject matter of the 9 representation, including, but not limited to, failing to respond promptly to reasonable status
10 inquiries of client and to keep client reasonably informed of significant developments in matters 11 with regard to which the attorney has agreed to provide legal services; (b) failing to file a brief 12 with supporting evidence to the BIA in support of the appeal which set forth how Mr. Salazar's 13 representation of Plaintiff was ineffective or how Plaintiff had been prejudiced by the actions or 14 inactions of Mr. Salazar; (c) failing to make an offer of proof as to the missing testimony from 15 those witnesses which Mr. Salazar did not call as witnesses at the hearing on May 5, 2010, or to 16 file their declarations from those witnesses, and failing to provide any reasonable argument based 17 thereon; (d) failing to submit evidence or argument as to how Mr. Salazar's failure to timely turn 18 over Plaintiff's file to GRUEL prejudiced Plaintiff; and (e) failing to submit reasonable evidence 19 or argument showing that the decision of May 5, 2010 by Judge Josephson was incorrect.

20 11. Plaintiff has performed all obligations to defendant except those obligations
21 Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

22 12. On or around November 19, 2010, the BIA denied Plaintiff's appeal as well
23 as Plaintiff's Motion To Stay Appeal And Remand to Immigration Judge.

24 13. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant's breach of the 25 agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $10,000, which fee is unconscionable under the 26 circumstances, by relying upon defendant to provide competent and effective legal representation 27 and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by putting his trust and 28 confidence upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, which resulted

1 in Plaintiff being detained by the governmental authorities as set forth more fully below,
 2 compensatory damages, special damages, severe mental and emotional distress, lost wages,
 3 additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File No. A089-854-130, expenses and costs, 4 injury to Plaintiff's reputation, interest, and such other and further damages in an amount to be 5 proven at trial.

6 14. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 7 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
 8 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and 9 Plaintiff's failure to discovery the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
 10 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

11 15. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 12 Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
 13 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous
 14 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

15 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

16 (Breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing in 17 Oral Contract #1 as to defendant GRUEL)

18 16. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 19 15 above, as though set forth fully herein.

20 17. On or around May 12, 2010, Plaintiff entered into Contract #1 with GRUEL.

21 18. As a matter of law, Contract #1 contains an implied covenant of good faith 22 and fair dealing.

23 19. Plaintiff performed all of his obligations to GRUEL under Contract #1, 24 except those obligations which Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

25 20. From on or around August 4, 2010 and continuing in an ongoing manner
 26 thereafter to the present, GRUEL breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing 27 contained in Contract #1 by failing to provide effective representation to Plaintiff, including, but 28

1 not limited to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a) failing to keep Plaintiff reasonably well
2 informed regarding the subject matter of the representation, including, but not limited to, failing
3 to respond promptly to reasonable status inquiries of client and to keep client reasonably 4 informed of significant developments in matters with regard to which the attorney has agreed to 5 provide legal services; (b) failing to file a brief with supporting evidence to the BIA in support of 6 the appeal which set forth how Mr. Salazar's representation of Plaintiff was ineffective or how 7 Plaintiff had been prejudiced by the actions or inactions of Mr. Salazar; (c) failing to make an 8 offer of proof as to the missing testimony from those witnesses which Mr. Salazar did not call as 9 witnesses at the hearing on May 5, 2010, or to file their declarations from those witnesses, and 10 failing to provide any reasonable argument based thereon; (d) failing to submit evidence or 11 argument as to how Mr. Salazar's failure to timely turn over Plaintiff's file to GRUEL prejudiced 12 Plaintiff; and (e) failing to submit reasonable evidence or argument showing that the decision of 13 May 5, 2010 by Judge Josephson was incorrect.

14 21. On or around November 19, 2010, the BIA denied Plaintiff's appeal as well
15 as Plaintiff's Motion To Stay Appeal And Remand to Immigration Judge.

16 22. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant's breach of the 17 agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $10,000, which fee is unconscionable under the 18 circumstances, by relying upon defendant to provide competent and effective legal representation 19 and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by putting his trust and 20 confidence upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, which resulted 21 in Plaintiff being detained by the governmental authorities as set forth more fully below,
22 compensatory damages, special damages, severe mental and emotional distress, lost wages,
23 additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File No. A089-854-130, expenses and costs,
24 injury to Plaintiff's reputation, interest, and such other and further damages in an amount to be 25 proven at trial.

26 23. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 27 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
28 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and

1 Plaintiff's failure to discovery the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
 2 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

3 24. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 4 Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
 5 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous
 6 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

8 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Breach of Oral Contract # 2 as to defendant GRUEL)

10 25. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 11 24 above, as though set forth fully herein.

12 26. In or around late November-early December of 2010, following the BIA's 13 denial of Plaintiff's appeal on November 19, 2010, GRUEL advised Plaintiff that GRUEL could 14 and would file an appeal for Plaintiff to the U.S. Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit, in 15 consideration for a flat fee payment by Plaintiff of $6,000, to be paid to GRUEL in cash.

16 27. On or around December 1, 2010, in reasonable reliance thereon, Plaintiff
 17 entered into an oral agreement with GRUEL whereby GRUEL, in consideration for a flat fee 18 payment of the sum of $6,000 by Plaintiff, agreed to represent Plaintiff by filing an appeal to the 19 U.S. Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit from the BIA decision entered on November 19, 2010
 20 in File No. A089-854-130, which, once filed, became the matter of Marco Antonio Corona 21 Contreras v. Eric H. Holder, Jr., Attorney General, U.S. Court of Appeal, Ninth Circuit, Case 22 No. 10-73794 ("Case No. 10-73794"), as well as a Motion To Reopen with the BIA in File No.
 23 A089-854-130, and Plaintiff was to pay GRUEL in cash (hereinafter referred to as "Contract 24 #2.")

25 28. At the time Plaintiff hired GRUEL and throughout GRUEL's
 26 representation of Plaintiff under Contract #2, there was no written fee contract in existence 27 between Plaintiff and GRUEL in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 6148, and GRUEL never 28 provided invoices nor receipts of any kind to Plaintiff.

1 29. From on or around October 12, 2011, and continuing in an ongoing manner
2 thereafter to the present, GRUEL breached Contract #2 by failing to provide effective
3 representation to Plaintiff, including, but not limited to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a)
4 failing to keep Plaintiff reasonably well informed regarding the subject matter of the 5 representation, including, but not limited to, failing to respond promptly to reasonable status
6 inquiries of client and to keep client reasonably informed of significant developments in matters 7 with regard to which the attorney has agreed to provide legal services; (b) failing to present any 8 meaningful argument to the Ninth Circuit that the BIA abused its discretion in failing to grant 9 Plaintiff's Motion To Stay and Remand to Immigration Judge, and denying Plaintiff's appeal;
10 and (c) failing to appeal the denial of Plaintiff's Motion To Reopen by the BIA after the BIA 11 denied the motion on or around June 7, 2011.

12 30. Plaintiff has performed all obligations to defendant except those obligations
13 Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

14 31. On or around October 12, 2012, the Ninth Circuit denied Plaintiff's Petition 15 For Review.

16 32. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant's breach of the 17 agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $6,000, which fee is unconscionable under the 18 circumstances, by relying upon defendants to provide competent and effective legal 19 representation and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by putting 20 his trust and confidence upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, 21 which resulted in Plaintiff being detained by the governmental authorities as set forth more fully 22 below, compensatory damages, special damages, severe mental and emotional distress, lost 23 wages, additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File No. A089-854-130, expenses and 24 costs, injury to Plaintiff's reputation, interest, and such other and further damages in an amount 25 to be proven at trial.

26 33. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 27 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
28 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and

1 Plaintiff's failure to discovery the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
 2 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

3 34. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 4 Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
 5 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous
 6 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

8 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing in 10 Oral Contract #2 as to defendant GRUEL)

11 35. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 12 34 above, as though set forth fully herein.

13 36. On or around December 1, 2010, Plaintiff entered into Contract #2 with 14 GRUEL.

15 37. As a matter of law, Contract #2 contains an implied covenant of good faith 16 and fair dealing.

17 38. From on or around October 12, 2011, and continuing in an ongoing manner
 18 thereafter to the present, GRUEL breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing 19 contained in Contract #2 by failing to provide effective representation to Plaintiff, including, but 20 not limited to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a) failing to keep Plaintiff reasonably well
 21 informed regarding the subject matter of the representation, including, but not limited to, failing
 22 to respond promptly to reasonable status inquiries of client and to keep client reasonably 23 informed of significant developments in matters with regard to which the attorney has agreed to 24 provide legal services; (b) failing to present any meaningful argument to the Ninth Circuit that 25 the BIA abused its discretion in failing to grant Plaintiff's Motion To Stay and Remand to 26 Immigration Judge, and denying Plaintiff's appeal; and (c) failing to appeal the denial of 27 Plaintiff's Motion To Reopen by the BIA after the BIA denied the motion on or around June 7, 28 2011.

39. Plaintiff performed all of his obligations to GRUEL under Contract #2, except those obligations which Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

40. On or around October 12, 2012, the Ninth Circuit denied Plaintiff's Petition For Review.

41. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant's breach of the agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $6,000, which fee is unconscionable under the circumstances, by relying upon defendant to provide competent and effective legal representation and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by putting his trust and confidence upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, which resulted in Plaintiff being detained by the governmental authorities as set forth more fully below, compensatory damages, special damages, severe mental and emotional distress, lost wages, additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File No. A089-854-130, expenses and costs, injury to Plaintiff's reputation, interest, and such other and further damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

42. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and Plaintiff's failure to discover the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

43. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No. A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Oral Contract # 3 as to defendant GRUEL)

44. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 43 above, as though set forth fully herein.

1 45. In or around late October - early November 2012, following the Ninth
2 Circuit's denial of Plaintiff's Petition For Review on or around October 12, 2012, GRUEL 3 advised Plaintiff that GRUEL could and would file a Petition for Rehearing for Plaintiff to the 4 U.S. Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit, in consideration for a flat fee payment by Plaintiff of 5 $5,000, to be paid to GRUEL in cash, with a down payment of $2,000 and installment payments 6 of $500/month until the balance of $3,000 was fully paid.

7 46. On or around November 20, 2012, in reasonable reliance thereon, Plaintiff
8 entered into an oral agreement with GRUEL whereby GRUEL, in consideration for a flat fee 9 payment of the sum of $5,000 by Plaintiff, agreed to represent Plaintiff by filing a Petition For 10 Rehearing to the U.S. Court of Appeal for the Ninth Circuit from the Ninth Circuit decision 11 entered on October 12, 2012 in the matter of Marco Antonio Corona Contreras v. Eric H.
12 Holder, Jr., Attorney General, U.S. Court of Appeal, Ninth Circuit, Case No. 10-73794 ("Case 13 No. 10-73794"), and Plaintiff was to pay GRUEL in cash, with a down payment of $2,000 and 14 installment payments of $500/month until the balance of $3,000 was fully paid (hereinafter 15 referred to as "Contract #3.")

16 47. At the time Plaintiff hired GRUEL and throughout GRUEL's
17 representation of Plaintiff under Contract #3 in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 6148, there 18 was no written fee contract in existence between Plaintiff and GRUEL, and GRUEL never 19 provided invoices nor receipts of any kind to Plaintiff.

20 48. From on or around May 28, 2013, and continuing in an ongoing manner 21 thereafter, GRUEL breached Contract #3 by failing to provide effective representation to 22 Plaintiff, including, but not limited to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a) failing to keep 23 Plaintiff reasonably well informed regarding the subject matter of the representation, including, 24 but not limited to, failing to respond promptly to reasonable status inquiries of client and to keep 25 client reasonably informed of significant developments in matters with regard to which the 26 attorney has agreed to provide legal services; (b) filing a fourth motion for extension of time to 27 file a Petition For Rehearing despite having been advised in the Ninth Circuit's Order granting 28 Plaintiff's third motion for a 60-day extension of time to file a Petition For Rehearing that "No

1 further extensions will be granted”; and (c) failing to file any Petition For Rehearing in a timely 2 manner, resulting in the Ninth Circuit issuing a Mandate on June 14, 2013 for Plaintiff, and 3 failing to advise Plaintiff that said Mandate had been issued.

4 49. Plaintiff performed all of his obligations to GRUEL under Contract #3, 5 except those obligations which Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

6 50. Unbeknownst to Plaintiff, on or around June 13, 2013, the Ninth Circuit 7 issued a Mandate against Plaintiff and Plaintiff was detained in Seattle, Washington, without any 8 prior notice, on or around July 1, 2013. Until that date, Plaintiff had not discovered, and despite 9 reasonable diligence, had no reasonable basis for discovering defendants’ wrongful conduct.

10 51. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant’s breach of the 11 agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $5,000, which fee is unconscionable under the 12 circumstances, by relying upon defendant to provide competent and effective legal representation
13 and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by relying upon defendant
14 to provide competent and effective legal representation, and by putting his trust and confidence
15 upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, which resulted in Plaintiff
16 being detained by the governmental authorities from on or around July 1, 2013 through August
17 16, 2013, and Plaintiff has thereafter suffered compensatory damages, special damages, severe
18 mental and emotional distress, lost wages, additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File
19 No. A089-854-130, expenses and costs, injury to Plaintiff’s reputation, interest, and such other 20 and further damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

21 52. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 22 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
23 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and 24 Plaintiff’s failure to discovery the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
25 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

26 53. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 27 Plaintiffs’ claims herein are tolled by GRUEL’s continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
28 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous

1 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

3 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

4 (Breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing in 5 Oral Contract #3 as to defendant GRUEL)

6 54. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 7 53 above, as though set forth fully herein.

8 55. On or around November 20, 2012, Plaintiff entered into Contract #3 with 9 GRUEL.

10 56. As a matter of law, Contract #3 contains an implied covenant of good faith 11 and fair dealing.

12 57. Plaintiff performed all of his obligations to GRUEL under Contract #3, 13 except those obligations which Plaintiff was prevented or excused from performing.

14 58. From on or around May 28, 2013, and continuing in an ongoing manner 15 thereafter, GRUEL breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing contained in 16 Contract #3 by failing to provide effective representation to Plaintiff, including, but not limited 17 to, the following acts and/or omissions: (a) failing to keep Plaintiff reasonably well informed 18 regarding the subject matter of the representation, including, but not limited to, failing to respond 19 promptly to reasonable status inquiries of client and to keep client reasonably informed of 20 significant developments in matters with regard to which the attorney has agreed to provide legal 21 services; (b) filing a fourth motion for extension of time to file a Petition For Rehearing despite 22 having been advised in the Ninth Circuit's Order granting Plaintiff's third motion for a 60-day 23 extension of time to file a Petition For Rehearing that "No further extensions will be granted"; 24 and (c) failing to file any Petition For Rehearing in a timely manner, resulting in the Ninth 25 Circuit issuing a Mandate on June 14, 2013 for Plaintiff, and failing to advise Plaintiff that said 26 Mandate had been issued.

27 59. On or around June 13, 2013, the Ninth Circuit issued a Mandate against 28 Plaintiff and Plaintiff was detained in Seattle, Washington, without any prior notice, on or around

1 July 1, 2013. Until that date, Plaintiff had not discovered, and despite reasonable diligence, had 2 no reasonable basis for discovering defendants' wrongful conduct.

3 60. Plaintiff suffered damages proximately caused by defendant's breach of the 4 agreement by having paid defendant the sum of $5,000, which fee is unconscionable under the 5 circumstances, by relying upon defendant to provide competent and effective legal representation
6 and by foregoing the exploration and retention of other legal counsel, by relying upon defendant
7 to provide competent and effective legal representation, and by putting his trust and confidence
8 upon defendant to provide competent legal representation to Plaintiff, which resulted in Plaintiff
9 being detained by the governmental authorities from on or around July 1, 2013 through August
10 16, 2013, and Plaintiff has thereafter suffered compensatory damages, special damages, severe
11 mental and emotional distress, lost wages, additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File
12 No. A089-854-130, expenses and costs, injury to Plaintiff's reputation, interest, and such other 13 and further damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

14 61. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 15 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
16 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and 17 Plaintiff's failure to discover the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
18 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

19 62. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 20 Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
21 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous
22 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

23 24 SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

25 (Negligence as to defendant GRUEL and DOES 1-20)

26 63. Plaintiff incorporates and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 27 62 above, as though set forth fully herein.

28 64. At all times relevant while GRUEL represented Plaintiff, GRUEL owed

1 Plaintiff a fiduciary duty of the very highest character which binds GRUEL the attorney to the 2 most conscientious fidelity to Plaintiff, a duty of confidentiality, a duty to advise Plaintiff as to 3 his legal rights and options with such skill, prudence and diligence as other members of the 4 profession commonly possess and exercise, a duty to respond promptly to reasonable status 5 inquiries of Plaintiff and to keep Plaintiff reasonably informed of significant developments in 6 matters with regard to which GRUEL had agreed to provide legal services,” a duty of care and 7 loyalty, as well as a duty to provide the Plaintiff with relevant documents.

8 65. Defendants and each of them breached their duties to Plaintiff by failing to 9 provide Plaintiff with, among other things, written fee agreements, invoices and/or receipts for 10 payments in violation of Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 6148, failing to maintain proper records of 11 funds paid by Plaintiff to GRUEL and render proper accounts in violation of Cal. Rule of Prof.
 12 Conduct 4-100, charging an unconscionable fee in violation of Cal. Rule of Prof. Conduct 4-13 200(A), and failing to perform GRUEL’s legal services with such skill, prudence and diligence as 14 other members of the profession commonly possess and exercise, including, but not limited to, 15 failing to submit to the BIA or to the Ninth Circuit the evidence and/or argument as appropriate 16 to overturn the May 5, 2010 decision by Judge Josephson, failing to inform Plaintiff of the nature 17 of the pleadings filed by GRUEL on behalf of Plaintiff as well as by the opposing party or 18 parties, let alone provide copies to Plaintiff of the same, and failing to provide Plaintiff with 19 copies of the BIA decision and Ninth Circuit Memorandum dated October 12, 2012 and other 20 orders, and failing to return Plaintiff’s telephone calls.

21 66. As a direct and proximate result of the aforementioned conduct of 22 defendants, Plaintiff suffered compensatory damages, special damages, severe mental and 23 emotional distress, lost wages, additional legal fees in Case No. 10-73794 and/or File No. A089-24 854-130, expenses and costs, injury to Plaintiff’s reputation, interest, and such other and further 25 damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

26 67. Because of the fiduciary nature of the relationship between GRUEL and 27 Plaintiff, and because Plaintiff placed his complete trust and faith in GRUEL up through at least
 28 July 1, 2013, Plaintiff was lulled into inaction even after hearing about an adverse result, and

1 Plaintiff's failure to discovery the facts constituting the wrongful acts or omissions alleged herein
 2 at any time prior to within one year prior to the filing of the instant action should be excused.

3 68. Furthermore, any and all statutes of limitations arguably applicable to 4 Plaintiffs' claims herein are tolled by GRUEL's continuous representation of Plaintiff in File No.
 5 A089-854-130 and its successive appeals until at least July 6, 2013, by the continuous
 6 representation tolling provision as codified in C.C.P. § 340.6(a)(2).

8 EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9 (Constructive fraud as to defendant GRUEL and DOES 1-20)

 15 failed to provide any competent evidence of how Mr. Salazar's failure to turnover any or all of 16 Plaintiff's files to GRUEL in a timely manner.

17 71. At all times relevant, as the more sophisticated and experienced party and 18 as the professional attorney, GRUEL proposed to Plaintiff the scope of the legal services that 19 GRUEL could provide prior to Plaintiff entering into Contract #1, Contract #2, and Contract #3, 20 and Plaintiff reasonably and justifiably relied on GRUEL.
